

ARIZONA WORKED ALL COUNTIES AWARD APPLICATION

Sponsored by the YAVAPAI AMATEUR RADIO CLUB in the Mother of all Arizona Counties

Purpose: To acknowledge and recognize the achievement of contacting radio operators in each of Arizona's 15 counties.

Rules: Any Amateur who confirms two-way QSO's via CW, SSB, FM, RTTY, Pactor, PSK 31 or Satellite with stations in each of the 15 Counties in Arizona may apply for this award. There are no endorsements for single band, single mode, or multiple distant contacts at this time.

Valid contact and Exchange: Any completed contacts meeting other award criteria may be submitted. Mobile operators who change counties are considered valid contacts in each county you work them. Cross Mode, Cross Band, Repeaters, Echo Link, CQ100 and IRLP contacts do not count. D-Star contacts are not valid at this time

Applications: Applications for the Arizona Worked all Counties Award must be submitted on the AZ-WAC application form showing Call Sign of station worked, Date, Band, Mode and County.

Submission of QSL cards is not required. Any two (2) non-family Amateur Licensees, General class or higher, can verify your QSL cards or log entries. The honor system will govern.

Completed application and county record sheet can be scanned and e-mailed to AZ-WAC@W7YRC.org or mailed to:
